O-DAIKO WORKSHOP

with

Wadaiko Artist ART LEE

Winner of the O-Daiko Championship Tokyo 2005

Saturday and Sunday 23 + 24, July 2011

10.00a.m. to 5.00 p.m. incl. break

Art Lee started to play Taiko with Sacramento Taiko Dan. In 1994 he was invited to play with Za Ondekoza. He played in well-known halls, such as Theater wie Aoyama Gekiyo, Suntory Hall, Tonhalle and Carnegie Hall. He was also member of Osuwa Daiko where he learned from the legendary Taiko Grandmaster Daihachi Oguchi.

As a solo player he has won the 1st Prize for Technique and artistic performance at the All-Japan Wadaiko Contest and Kumamoto Odaiko Championship. This was also the first time this prize has ever been granted to a foreigner in Japan. Today he is considered to be one of the premier solo taiko artists of our generation

He is the first foreign artist to be granted an unsponsored visa from the Japanese government to live and teach Taiko in Japan. He is founder and artistic director of Tokara Wadaiko
